WEDDING CLASSICS presents ten traditional and classical favorites particularly appropriate for the wedding service. On the companion CD you will hear excellent recorded performances of the selections by some of the best young singers in the country, as well as accompaniments only with which you can sing along. WEDDING CLASSICS is not only indispensable to singers, but can be a wonderful resource for couples to use in listening to and choosing music for their wedding. One selection, "Pur ti miro," features an optional string quartet accompaniment to give any wedding a special touch of distinction.
